

How to use the chargeable card

1. Connect Digimaster III to power and internet with the LAN cable;

1. Enter “Management”, click ; input the ID and password from us at the below window.

Step 2: Input the Recharging code and password provide by the sales. Click "Next".

4. The rechargeable card is mainly for high-end cars added newly updated which are difficult in correcting odometer via OBD connector directly, such as Benz, BMW, VW and Audi.

5. For different vehicle models, the tokens that require for are different. It is around 2 to 60 tokens for a model. Please go to “Management” and select the “Module price list” to learn the detail price for different car models.

In the “Module price list”, you will see some modules with “Authorized” which means the function is activated permanently for use; “Unauthorized” modules mean inactivated. You need to pay additionally if you want to use the function.